What is contemporary art?

Contemporary art is made by artists who are living and working today. It often deals with current issues and themes—things you might read about in a newspaper or encounter in daily life.

Contemporary art can come in many shapes and sizes and may be made out of materials you wouldn't expect to see in a museum.

Use these prompts as inspiration for how to look at and think about what you see in the museum. Feel free to explore, talk, play, and draw. Enjoy your visit.
